Sovereign Wolf Volume 1, Issue 0

Superior Numbers

Panel Layout: Establishing shot of the universe. Doesn't have to be to detailed, but enough to know its our universe.

NARRATION: Our universe

NARRATION: History has shown us its many complexities and simplicities alike

Panel Layout: This view is as if you are hiding in the jungle, looking from the inside looking out. What we see through the jungle is a not-so-distinct shot of the back of a T-Rex that appears to have something in its mouth.

NARRATION: And from these we're given the laws of nature

NARRATION: Laws that are universal

NARRATION: Laws that apply to all forms of life

NARRATION: The first and by far the most important law being....

Panel Layout: A medium-off-center shot of a T-Rex mauling a lone raptor. Make sure that the dominance of the T-Rex is represented in this panel.

NARRATION: (BOLD) ... Survival of the fittest!!!

Panel Layout: Same type of panel as the first on this page, only with a lion and a hyena instead.

NARRATION: But just as the first law provides the most powerful with a sense of dominance...

Panel Layout: Another panel of the same type as the last two. This one though shoul be a tight shot of a huge insect dominating a single ant.

NARRATION: Nature gives us yet another of its laws

Panel Layout: This is a follow up to the T-Rex panel on the second page. Only in this one, the view pans out to see a group of raptors starting to surround the T-Rex

NARRATION: A law that proves that there is a natural balance

Panel Layout: Another follow up. This time, for the lion. This is the same type of panel as the first panel of this page but only with a pack of hyena instead of raptors.

NARRATION: A balance that allows all forms of life to dominate

Panel Layout: Worms-eye view. Another follow up. This time, for the huge insect. This is the same type of panel as the first panel of this page but only with an army of ants instead of hyena.

NARRATION: That law?

O.K. This panel should really do it for the reader. The bottom left-hand corner should contain the exact same scene as the last panel of page 3. The rest of the panel contains about three larger figures outnumbered by about ten smaller figures. The three figs. should be grouped tightly together as if in formation to defend themselves. Of the three figs., the your main focus(meaning who you should make look the coolest), should be on the "older, wiser and more distinc" one in the middle of the other two. He is the current Chief of the Shadow Clan Wolf, "Chief Black Wolf" (I know - How Original, Huh? Doesn't matter, he dies anyway!). Their backs are turned to us at a worm's-eve 3/4 view so that we see what kind of odds they're up against. They dressed in tribal gear and are weaponless, but look very confident considering thier situation. The other ten or so figs. should look ready to pound at any minute. They are wearing a certain kind of stealth suit(kinda like the suit Snake Eyes from G.I. Joe has), but their faces can be seen. One of them(who in future books is revealed to be "Stripes" of the Swarm Clan Insect), should be on the frontline and seem like the dominant one of them all. One of his hands is extended and is pointing out towards his enemies. The other hand is holding a halberd(a sort of spear with the blade of a short sword). The other figs. in his group also have close-combat weapons of all sorts and sizes. It's gonna get ugly, FAST!!

NARRATION: (BOLD) Srength in Numbers!

STRIPES: (YELLING) Chief Black Wolf of the Shadow Clan Wolf....

Panel Layout: Medium shot of Stripes' full bust. His face looks very devilish. We can see a few of the other figs. that are with him in the background. They look just as vicious.

STRIPES: (STILL YELLING) The end of the Clans of Old starts today old man!

STRIPES: Mr. Emerald has sent us to take back what is rightfully his.

Panel Layout: Opposite of the first panel, this one is a tight shot of the full busts of the three clan members. Black Wolf should be in the forefront. Now that we see their faces, we see that Black Wolf is an older looking man, but his eyes clearly show that he is the leader(HE IS PISSED!). The other two look just as mad. We can faintly see their enemies closing in around them.

BLACK WOLF: James Emerald is a madman who speaks nothing but lies. This is our land. BLACK WOLF: His tyranny has lead to the displacement and disappearance of thousands. He will not do the same to my people.

BLACK WOLF: If Emerald has sent you here to force us out as well, he should have sent more than just a few of his men.

BLACK WOLF: (DEFIANTLY YELLING) He should have sent an army!

Panel Layout: Almost EXACTLY the same as the first panel, only with a tighter shot of Stripes' face.

STRIPES: You are sadly mistaken old man. Emerald has not sent us here to FORCE you out,...

STRIPES: ...He has sent us here to WIPE you out!!

STRIPES: We know the true nature of your clan, Black Wolf. And Emerald has provided us with a few surprises to deal with you.

STRIPES: And as for sending an army,...

STRIPES: I had something else in mind...

Panel Layout: (SEE SUPERMAN/BATMAN # 9 PAGE 18 - PANEL 2) THIS IS WHERE IT BEGINS!! Almost looking head-on at Stripes, this is a medium shot of Stripes and his men STARTING TO TRANSFORM INTO WERE-WASPS!! In the background, we can see a black mist starting to form and come down from the sky, heading right for Black Wolf and the others. The mist is accually insects! Make sure that the transformation of Stripes is the best, and make sure that his is the focal point of the panel.

STIPES: (SCREAMING/STYLIZED) ...SWAAAARRRRM!!!!!!!

Panel Layout: This is a VERY tight shot of all three clan members. They are stunned!! The look on their faces should show how puzzled they are. They ALMOST look SCARED!!

BLACK WOLF: (THINKING) WHA...? SHAPESHIFTERS? It can't be! They're not part of the native tribes!!

MAN 1: (THINKING IN UNICEN) This is not...
MAN 2: (THINKING IN UNICEN) ...Going to...
BLACK WOLF: (THINKING IN UNICEN) ...Be good!!

Page 7 - Panels 1 through 6 - 1/6 of Page Each

Layout: (SEE SUPERMAN/BATMAN # 9 PAGE 21 - PANEL 2) O.K. Each of these panels should almost be in shadow. They should be sequential, showing the three clan members being overwhelmed by swarms of insects and halberd carrying were-wasps(Stripes and a few others stay back). The three are flailing their arms wildly, trying to defend themselves. They should gradually appear to be transforming into wolves more and more in each panel. There should be implied blood splaterring in all directions, from both sides of the battle. By the last panel, the three should be fully transfomed and should appear to be worn out. The three also appear to have gained control of the situation, if only for the time being. The wasp swarm should look like it is beginning to dispurse and clear out in the last panel also. Blood should be dripping from the claws of the wolves.

(THE EACH LINE OF "DIALOGUE" BELOW SHOULD SEPERATE EACH PANEL)

FX: (STYLIZED) RRRRRHHHHOOOWWWLLLLLLLL!!!! FX: (STYLIZED) BUUUZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZZ!!!!

Layout: (SEE SUPERMAN/BATMAN # 10 COVER) This is a tight shot of all three wolves' entire bodies. This is so we can see how furious, dangerous and most of all "beat-up" they are. The attack has apparently been called of by Stripes. Even though one of the wolves has fallen, and another has been brought to one knee, Black Wolf still stands, now with a look dire hate for his enemies. He also appears to have multiple wounds. From the fallen wolf, we see his essence / soul rising from his body and through the air.

BLACK WOLF: (YELLING) Savages!!

BLACK WOLF: Victory will not be so easy against the Shadow Clan Wolf.

BLACK WOLF: As with all of the native clans, when one of us falls, the spirit of the warrior is received by the strongest member of that warrior's clan. So you've not only upset me, but you've just made a dear friend of mine extremely powerful.

BLACK WOLF: (THINKING) I just hope Eclipse gets John to Silver Paw and returns before it's not too late!

FX: (STYLIZED) GRRRRRRRRR000000WWWL!!!!!!
